The awards ceremony honoring the Champions will be held in Pittsburgh at One Oxford Centre on Wednesday, April 1st, 2020. We will also honor the children who were lost to abuse in the past year. Please do plan to attend as well as making a nomination!

In recognition of Child Abuse Prevention Month in April 2020, Pennsylvania Family Support Alliance will honor individuals from Greater Allegheny County for their exceptional contributions to the prevention of child abuse and neglect.

One professional, one volunteer, and one media/PR representative or organization will be honored at the PA Blue Ribbon Champions for Safe Kids of Greater Allegheny County Award Ceremony on April 1, 2020 in Pittsburgh.

The individuals nominated should be shining examples of those working in the community to prevent child abuse and neglect. These awards serve as an opportunity to honor champions for children who work tirelessly, often without fanfare or recognition, to improve the lives of our most vulnerable residents.

The Greater Allegheny County Champions will also participate in the statewide awards ceremony held on April 8th at the State Capitol and will be the principal awardees recognized at the celebration on the 1st of April in Pittsburgh.

The person you nominate should be a professional, volunteer or organization who is an everyday hero among us, keeping our children safe. Nominations for this recognition are welcome from schools, government agencies, community organizations, private practices, and churches as well as other concerned individuals and groups.

*Media representatives can be nominated if they have produced and published content, with an Allegheny County focus, in 2019 on child abuse prevention, and/or the health, safety and well-being of children. Please include background information on the nominee, the nature of the coverage or work produced by the nominee, as well as three (3) samples of their work.

A panel of judges from Allegheny County who are child welfare experts will be making the selection of the winning nominee.
