Pa Family Support Alliance Welcomes Pa Council of Children, Youth & Family Services CEO as Newest Board Member

Terry Clark joins statewide board to #ProtectPAKids from abuse

HARRISBURG, Pa. – Pa Family Support Alliance \(PFSA\), the state leader in child abuse prevention, today announced the appointment of Terry Clark to its Governing Board of Directors.

“We are grateful to have Terry joining our board with his wide array of experiences,” said Angela Liddle, PFSA President and CEO. “His dedication to supporting the families and children of Pennsylvania is evident by all the work he has done. We are thrilled to have his expertise as we advance our vision for all children to grow and thrive free from abuse and neglect.”

Clark is the President and CEO of the Pennsylvania Council of Children, Youth & Family Services, a statewide service that advocates on behalf of providers serving children, youth and families throughout the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Terry’s passion for working to improve the commonwealth’s child welfare system has spanned 33 years and has led him to numerous roles within the field and across the state.

“I’m honored to be a part of PFSA’s statewide board,” Clark said. “Much of my career has been dedicated to protecting and providing for the children of Pennsylvania, and as I work alongside PFSA I will continue to do everything in my power to educate others and to ensure a positive, abuse-free environment for PA kids.”

Commented [MM1]: I kinda liked the original quote better about advancing their mission, but I didnt want it to be the same and couldnt figure out how to reword it without losing meaning: advance our mission of ensuring that Pennsylvania’s children have the opportunity to grow up in environments free of abuse
